We frequently receive a dollar by mail asking us to credit subscription one year. The price of the News and Citizen is $1.25 to one and all. When only a dollar is sent, ten months credit is given on the subscription. Better send the full amount, $1.25 when the paper is wanted for a year. And we would also say that the price for the paper for six months is 65 cts., and three months 35 cts. Make a note of this.

The Methodist Sunday School will hold a basket picnic next Saturday in Arthur Standliff's grove. All members of the school are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock a. m. sharp, where transportation will be furnished. Let old and young all join in making this picnic a success. A short literary program and other interesting features have been planned. If the weather should be unfavorable the picnic will be postponed one week.

Town Representative

We hear but little said about the Representative question. The time for filing of certificates for place on the primary ballot expires next Monday. It is said that E. A. Smalley, who was an aspirant two years ago would like to be considered at this time. The name of Walter M. Sargent is favorably mentioned. There may be others and no doubt their friends will bring them forward now that the question is being considered.

Mrs. Arlie Cochran of Waterbury has begun work at The Randall.

The County Fair

The season of Agricultural Fairs is upon us again and attention is directed anew to the helpful exhibit of the Lamoille Valley Fair, which for many years has given the farmers of the county an annual opportunity to meet and exchange views and discover what their neighbors are accomplishing in the way of betterments and improvements in the tilling of the soil and stock raising. The displays at the Fair are always educative and the premiums which are awarded stimulate a healthy rivalry in the neighborhood, for a person who can win a prize in any line of endeavor has promoted a competition in his own community that must make for greater excellence and hence must produce substantial results.

Besides all this, this is the annual opportunity for friends and neighbors to meet and have the real old-fashioned visit which comes only at Fair time. On this occasion many meet only once a year and the visit and the let-up from the daily routine of the busy life is an incentive to good health and happiness. Therefore, plan to attend the Fair, and take the whole family with you and have a real good time.

Barn Burned at Cady's Falls

An alarm of fire was sounded at noon yesterday, when a barn on the place occupied by Elmer Hill and owned by Joseph Sherman at Cady's Falls was discovered in flames. The Morrisville fire department hurried to the scene of the fire, but the flames were so far advanced when discovered that the efforts were in vain. There was no hay in the barn, but a surly belonging to Earl Whittemore was destroyed. There was an insurance of $125 on the barn. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Republican County Ticket

In addition to the county ticket filled by the Democrats with the county clerk the following have filed as Republicans: Senator—Linus Leavens, Cambridge; Assistant Judges—J. S. Leach, Hyde Park; H. A. Jackson, Waterville. State's Att'y.—M. P. Maurice, Morrisville; W. E. Tracy, Johnson. Sheriff—Geo. E. Town, Morrisville. Probate Judge—N. G. Wood, Hyde Park. High Bailiff—C. E. Savary, Hyde Park. There is a bit of rumor that "stickers" may be used on some of the above names.

Oldest Dancing Master

Geo. Elmore, who was in town Monday, is probably the oldest active dancing master in Vermont, if not in the U. S. He has been instructing in the terpsichorean art for forty-two years and is still at it, although he calls this his last year. He is in his 73d year but doesn't look a bit over 60, and he says he likes to dance now just as much as he ever did. He left last night for Chicago to attend the annual convention of the Dancing Masters' Association, of which he has been a member 32 years and missed but one or two meetings in that time. Although he went away from Morrisville 25 years ago, George still retains an interest in the place, even if many of the old faces are gone. He is thinking seriously of again taking up his residence here when he retires from active business. You'll receive a hearty welcome, George.

Next Wednesday Morning

In order to give all hands an opportunity to attend the Fair next week this paper will be printed early next Wednesday morning. Correspondents and advertisers will please send in their copy one day earlier and "don't you forget it!"

Godfrey-Wrisley

Last Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. W. Tabor occurred the marriage of Miss Hazel Wrisley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Wrisley, and Gaylord Godfrey, Mr. Tabor performing the ceremony. When returning to the Wrisley home that evening the couple were met by some twenty friends and neighbors, who escorted them home to the strains of both vocal and instrumental music and a most enjoyable evening was passed. The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey with numerous gifts as a reminder of the pleasant occasion.

HYDE PARK

Sheriff Nash of Bennington was in town yesterday.

Frank Keeler has returned from the hospital much improved in health. The Morrisville Community Chautauqua had a fair attendance from here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Harrington of Burlington were guests yesterday of J. T. Stevens.

Miss Dorothy Tillotson of St. Johnsbury is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Melora Noyes.

Miss Irene Child of Moretown was the guest several days recently of her friend, Miss Addie Foss.

Clarence Badger, Hugh Scofield and Carroll G. Page are taking an auto trip through the White Mountains.

Miss Lessie Cobb of Westford, spent a few days here recently with her old-time schoolmate, Mrs. Page Ufford.

E. H. Button and family and Miss Kingsley of Brandon were visitors recently of Mr. and Mrs. Savary at the Inn.

Mr. Walter C. Wood of Bennington, a graduate of the class of 1916 of the University of Vermont, State Agricultural College is in town to commence his duties as instructor in the Lamoille Central Academy. Mr. Wood will have charge of the Agricultural work which the school will take up this year.

Petitions for candidates for Representative must be filed with the Town Clerk on or before Monday next. We hear but little regarding candidates. The names of E. A. Wedge, R. C. Crocker and H. M. McFarland have been "mentioned" on the Republican side and for the Democrats we hear John H. Gray and Oscar N. Campbell frequently suggested. We presume there will be others and as the election does not come until November there'll be plenty of time to write in your favorite, if he does not get his name on the primary ballot.

In quite a number of cases petitions have been sent to the County Clerk that have the endorsement of the same party for the same office on two petitions. Of course this throws out the petitions entire. No person can sign more than one petition for the same office. In not a few cases the party before whom the certificate was sworn neglected to put on his official signature. Wherever the clerk knew the position held by the official he has added that thereto.

SALEEBY'S

FINAL CLEARANCE SALE

Has Been Extended Until

Wednesday, Aug. 30th

We have never advertised a Clearance Sale to which the people responded as they have to this one, and great confidence in the merchandise and values we offer have been expressed by their generous purchases.

We judge by the inquiries which we receive daily from people all over the county that there are many who wish to come to this sale if they have the opportunity, so we will extend the time until Wednesday, Aug. 30, to give time to every man and woman who would like to save a few dollars, to come and we will help them to save it.

This Opportunity to save money on your Clothing will NOT be Presented to You again for Many Seasons to Come.

COME NOW. COME NOW.
